Are you interested in becoming more involved in our club? We have several areas where you can share your talents and interests! Our board works very hard to bring you great titles, programs and literary events throughout the year. We welcome fresh eyes and ideas while having fun. Please check a committee you might be interested in.

_____ Book Selection - Using many book review sources and excerpts from Good Reads to the Wall Street Journal and following these guidelines: Books published in the current year. Books approximately 350 pages of text. Balance of non-fiction and fiction. Balance of topics and sensitive to explicit language, politics, sex, and violence. The committee meets a few times a year and communicates via email on titles they will read for selection purposes.

_____ Book Discussion - Arrange for book discussion leaders from our member group and contribute to choosing titles for book discussion.

_____ Information Technology- Maintains and updates Book Club of Grosse Ile website posts, events and board documents to website, Facebook, facilitates Zoom meetings when necessary.

_____ Hospitality - Coordinates with the Programs Committee to reserve meeting venue, refreshments, invitations for programs and a welcoming presence at our events.

_____ Programs- Vital to the social aspect of our club, the programs committee looks for speakers with literary background and local interests.

_____ Circulation Committee- Once our roster for the new passing year is established, the circulation committee works to get the passing schedule into three groups: North, South, and Central. Books are randomly assigned to each active member.
