Our committees are vital to the club's success. Please indicate the committee you are interested in joining.

Programs: Discovers possible speakers (writers, individuals with literary ties or topics of interest), attends local programs to evaluate speakers, and arranges presentation details.

Circulation: Places Active members into three island regions, develops the schedule for book passing, assists with book wrapping, and oversees the smooth exchange of books through the year.

Book Selection: Uses club guidelines to read or review newly published books, determines the reading list of fiction and nonfiction books for the upcoming year.

Media Management: Maintains the website with updated documents, schedules, events and photos, increases community awareness with posts to social media.

Hospitality: Secures locations for events, organizes refreshments and decorations, coordinates annual dinner meeting, and provides a welcoming presence.

Book Discussion: Ensures rewarding exchange of ideas by determining books to be reviewed, selecting discussion leaders, and assisting with developing questions
